A story of passion and dedication

For "Le Soleil" the year 2016 was the culmination of 11 years of passion and dedication. This year two of the five births are going to result in our third generation of horses bred in the farm. The March 1st, at 1 a.m. our Laheeba Le Soleil, daughter of Alfibia Sheib (WH Justice x Prishta SF by Prichal) and of Halima Shah Le Soleil (Laheeb Al Nasser x Alfibia Gaucita by Phaaros) gave birth to Olymphia Le Soleil, a stunning dark bay foal, the daughter of Marwan Al Shaqab.

During the deliveries, I personally assist the mares and help with the birth of the foals. Each time, the emotion and excitement is indescribable; these are precisely the moments that urge and motivate me to go ahead and revitalize the passion for breeding. This was the first delivery/birth for Laheeba and therefore I was a bit agitated as well. It was something new for her but also an unknown factor to me, as you never can be sure how the mare will react to such a strange event that she has never experienced before.

The wonders of nature are incredible, I'm always confounded when I assist at the scene, especially for first-time mothers. After the last push the mother raises her neck and, with an almost surprising look, tries to figure out what is that "thing" so small and so wet. It seems that she almost wonders, "is it mine? Was it him that was kicking and moving inside of my stomach?" Then, when she tries to smell him, she recognizes his smell as part of hers, but as soon as the little one touches her nose with his little muzzle she jerks away, perhaps startled and thinking, "ah but it moves?" How strange is this little creature!" Then, after inspecting it for good, the expression in her eyes suddenly changes, the astonishment vanishes, and you see, you see what I call "The Eye of the Mother" is for me the most complete description that can be attributed to the mares' expression when they understand that the "being" found beside them is a part of themselves. From that moment on, "a light" is perceived that releases all the love the mother has towards their offspring.

"The Eye of the Mother"

It's incredible the emotion one senses looking at the mothers with their foals, you can feel the pure and unconditional love that bond this two "beings" together. It's a mystery of creation of life. I think the maternity and the motherhood are the greatest gifts that were given to women, the creation of life, carrying inside of the womb for such a long time a new life, that is part of their own. It's an unbreakable bond, whether human or animal, all mothers are unique, and even more unique is the expression that I call "The Eye of the Mother."

The second birth is also part of our third generation, and is once again by Marwan Al Shaqab and our Leilany Le Soleil, but this time was a colt we bred for Al Shaqab named Luqman Al Shaqab.

Unfortunately in the life of a breeder oftentimes unpleasant things happen and our Olymphia Le Soleil died at the age of 8 months for a tremendous colic.

After that terrible event in 2017 another wonderful year is arrived and we had four fillies, all by the magnificent ZT Magnofantasy. The choice of breeding important mares with the same stallion can be without doubts risky. Let's see what drove me to make this decision.

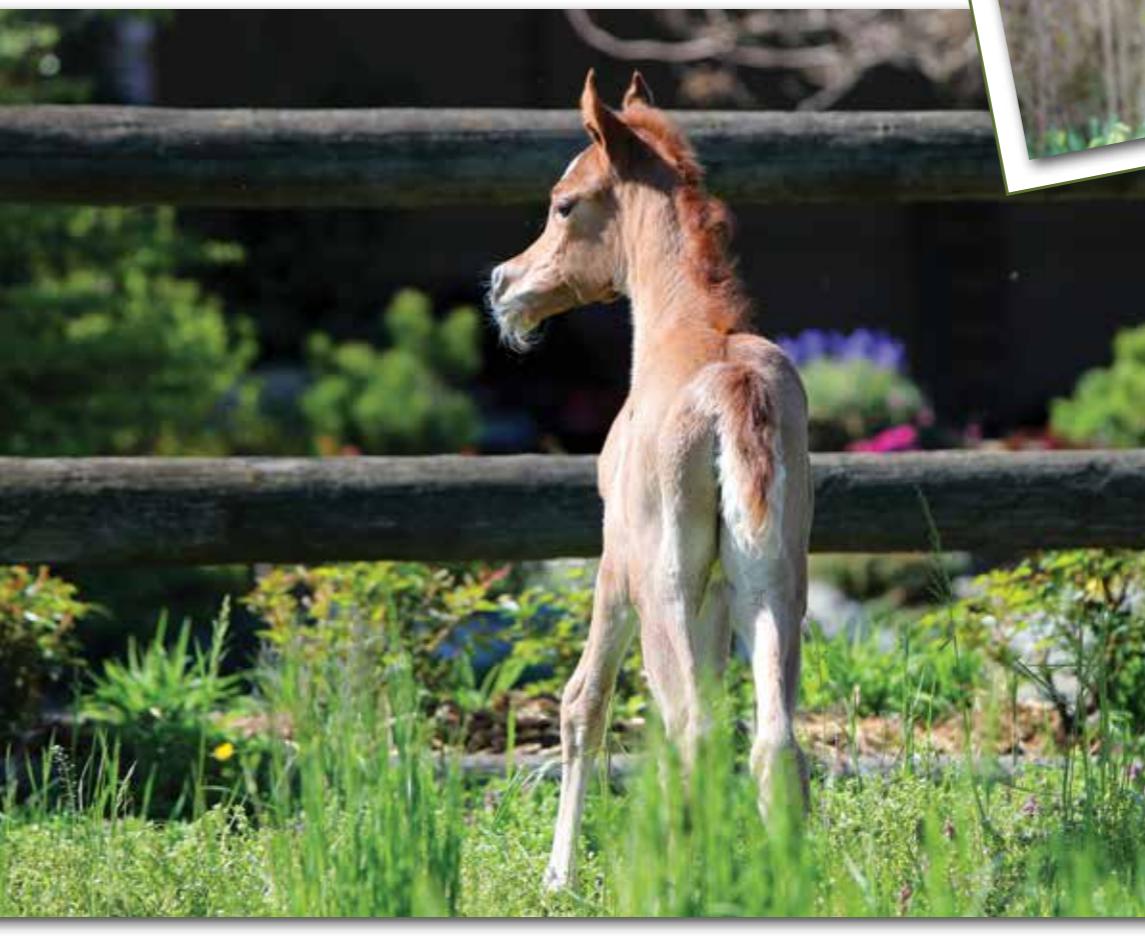

I fell in love with ZT Magnofantasy since the very first time I saw him four years ago at Alfibia Stud. Back then he was a young, but already very impressive. A tall and perfect body, a long arched neck, and of course, an amazing dishy head. After that visit to Alfibia Stud I decided to breed with him one of my mares and got an outstanding filly called NIZWA LE SOLEIL.

After this filly I decided to go further with ZT Magnofantasy. This time the cross was with my WH Justice daughter. The union gave me a beautiful grey colt called Osmanthus Le Soleil, now owned by my dear friend Miloslava Khamis, from Bebo Stud.

I was so thrilled about them both that yes, I jumped! I bred my best four mares with ZT Magnofantasy and the results are truly impressive! Four beautiful fillies, one better than the other! ZT Magnofantasy has been a very influential horse for Le Soleil, as he didn't only transmit beauty, but also attitude. Since the early days I've been able to see these features in his progeny, and now it is truly a pleasure for the eye to look at them showing off in the pastures.
